Farmingville, NY – Councilwoman Jane Bonner (back row, right) recently took the opportunity to personally thank members of Mount Sinai High School Art Club for their participation in Brookhaven Town's annual Recycle Bin Art Project, sponsored by the Town's Waste Management Department. Participants were asked to paint recycle bins in an effort to encourage recycling throughout Town, specifically at the parks where they will be placed adjacent to garbage cans.

"Protecting the environment is everyone's responsibility and it's important that we all do our part to recycle," said Councilwoman Bonner. "Thanks to the Art Club students, Brookhaven can be a cleaner, greener place to live."
